How could caring for the world change the world for the better?

Hear

The Creation stories in Genesis use symbolism to explain the relationship between God, human beings, and the world.

In the first account of the Creation one day is 'made holy'.
(Genesis 2:3) "He blessed the seventh day and set it apart as a special day, because by that day he had completed his creation and stopped working."

Key Texts

- Genesis 1:1-2:4 - Creation
- Psalm 19 – God's Glory in Creation (poetry)
- Laudato Si 66 and 88

Live

We can show care for God's world (stewardship) as part of our care for each other.

We can give thanks for the blessing of Creation, including spending time in prayer.

Believe

🌍 ✨ God is the Creator of the Universe who made everything out of 'free and unselfish love'.

😊😊😊😊 All human beings are made in God's image and likeness, and all people have dignity and are created equal.

🌳 🤝 Humans imitate God through caring for each other and caring for Creation.

🏠 🗣️ Not caring for Creation is a way people turn away from God's love.

Celebrate

Catholics thank and praise God for the beautiful world.

😊 In St Francis' Canticle of the Creatures, people praise God for the sun, moon, stars, water, and animals. They thank God for all the gifts of Creation.

🍞 🍷 At Mass, the Offertory prayers thank God for the bread and wine, which come from the earth and from people's work.

🌍 🙏 In "A Prayer for Our Earth" from Laudato Si', Catholics ask God to help us love, protect, and care for our common home.
